ALABAMA .-- Of the principal candidates, the preference of this State is clearly for Buchanan; but her vote on the first ballot may be east for Wm. R. King, one of her Senators in Congress. ARKANSAS—The delegates are instructed to vote for Buchanan or Douglas; we have given half to each.

CONNECTICUT.—This delegation is favorable to CONNECTICUT.—This delegation is favorable to Houston, but will deem it politic to cast their first for Cass, in the hope of taking away with them a portion of his disbanded force for Houston.

INDIANA.—The delegation was instructed to vote for Gen. Lane by the State Convention.

lowa—le claimed entire for both Cass and Douglas. We divide the vote.

MAINE.—All the districts have not yet elected, but we have estimated them and given the votes of the side usually in a majority in the State, to Gen. Houston, and the others to Gen. Cass.

MASSACHUSETTS—Governor Marcy, who is a native of this State, has many friends there, and the friends of the Boston Times are in favor of Douglas, and the Boston Post clique are for Cass. We have made a liberal allowance in favor of Cass, and divided the balance of the votes between the other two.

Mississippi.—The friends of Jefferson Davis, who are a majority of the delegation, are understood to be in favor of General Butler.

Missouri —The State Convention expressed a preference for Cass, but some of the delegates present scouted the expression. We have classed them as their preferences are understood to be.

New Hampshire.—The State Convention expressed a preference for General Frank Pierce, who has decimed. But the delegates will probably vote for him until they see the way clear to a nomination. New York.—We give all the "hard-shell hunkers" to Cass, except Winfield, of Orange, and Moulton, of Oncida, who are instructed for Marcy; and also two "soft-shell hunkers," Sheyard, of this city and Diakie, of Erie, who are instructed for Cass. The rest of the "soft-shell hunkers," with the harnburners, and Winfield and Moulton, we give to Marcy.

New Jerry —We give the votes of the Stockton.

Marcy.

New Jersey.—We give the votes of the Stockton men to Cass, because they will probably vote so on he first ballot.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The State is decidedly for Buchanan. But Reid, the democratic Governor, being related to Douglas by marriage, we have allowed his district to the latter.

Omo.—This was the estimate for this State, but it is now understood that Allen will get more and Cass fewer votes. RHODE ISLAND.—Is not over anxious for Cass, but we have allowed him her vote.

TENNESSEE —Is uncertain, but we have given her vote to Cass, as the delegation will be apt to make such a deposition of it, a stand-point for an observa-

VERMONT.—We give the votes of the "old liners" to Cass. These are gentlemen anxious for offices; and they are now dreaming that Cass's nomination is sure, and their names are on his slate. The other side go for Douglas.

Wisconsin.—Two of the delegates are understood to be for Gen. Dodge; the rest we allow to Cass.

The other cleven States are sure to vote in solid column as we have classed them. We have tried to mark up Cass and Douglas, but we do not know where to guess at another vote for either.

We need hardly say, that the second and subsequent ballots will have a very different exposure.

Here is General Scott nominated "before one can gay Jack Robinson"—but let us look into this swear.

Here is General Scott nominated "before one can ray Jack Robinson"—but let us look into this sweeping account a little. In the first place, we know, as well as anything in the future can be known, that General Scott will not get four votes from New Hampshire, nor four from Vermont, nor three from Rhode island, nor four from Connecticut, nor thirty from New York, nor seven from New Jersey, nor twenty-ix from Pennsylvania, nor five from Wisconsin, nor live from Michigan, nor two from California, and we believe he will not get the votes put down for him in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. The writer states his case blindly. Even in Pennsylvania, we have authority for saying, there will be three or four votes for Mr. Fillmore, on the first ballot. We believe there will be two from Ohio, and one certainly. If, therefore, thirty is taken from the Scott column and put on to the Fillmore column, it will prove much nearer the result. Mr. Fillmore is not even allowed as many votes from all the free States, as he will have from New York.

The calculation as to the second ballot, so nicely friend of Mr. Fillmore or Mr. Webster; and General Scott, we predict, will get no votes from Virginia, Kentucky, Maryland, or Louisiana, short of his pub-lic and recorded commitment to the Compromise measures; and this he has not yet made, and may not make at all.

not make at all.

The above figures, then, have not even the pretence of fact to go upon. They are but a new evidence of the new tactics of bragging and boasting which has distinguished the Anti-Fillmore men during the month past. They are but "springes to catch woodcocks," and we trust that no game will be entrapped by such false alarms.

usiness of importance. It was the mere weekly formal business of importance. It was the mere weekly formal meeting. They congratulated each other very warmly on the victory in Hudson county, N. J. One of the members, who attended the election of delegates to the Baltimore Convention in that county, reported the success of the Scott party to be thirty votes for Gen. Scott, and ten for Fillmore and Webster, together. The Scott Committee laid some pipe last night; they are a shrewd set of fellows. They have so managed the fifth district convention, where they found that they could not carry it for Scott, that it will not go for anybody. This committee are in high spirits. They condidently reckon upon a larger majority in New Jersey than even in New York State, New Jersey being the State in which Scott resides.

Cass. They have got John Van Buren and his faction on their side in this State, and they calculate that this, with the State of Pennsylvania, settles the matter as between Cass and Buchanan. It is said that the Buchanan Committee are spending menoy freely, and have already bought up one or two worthless papers. There can be no doubt that the Cass men are far less confident than they were. They are sullen, and they threaten that if Cass is tricked out of the nomination, they will be so lukewarm in the coming election that Scott will have a walk over the ground.

the necessity of making the matter a portion of the de-mocratic platform, and that, consequently, no Compro-mise resolutions will be introduced before the democratic convention. This arrangement, however, will not be greed to, without a great deal of trouble, if at all.

Mr. Buchanan has replied to Mr. Scott's three interre ations. by giving to each an affirmative response, in the strongest language.
So also has General Lane.
Gov Marcy's reply, if he has made any, has not yet been received.

The Whig National Convention.

The Whig Convention for the Fifth district met at Worcester to-day, and chose Ira N. Barton delegate to the National Convention. Judge Barton avowed his preference for Scott, and is the first Scott delegate chosen in Massachusetts. Artemas Lee, of Templeton, was chosen substitute. The Committee on Resolutions reported a series, which expressed no Presidential preferences, but say that, in order to maintain the supremacy of whig principles, they are willing to drop personal favorites.

Convention was of a Webster stamp.

Arrival of Democratic Delegates at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 25, 1852.
Delegates to the Democratic National Convention are rapidly arriving here from all parts of the country. Every train brings in new arrivals. The hotels are filling up very fast. Our city is intested with quite a formidable band of well known pickpockets from Philadelphia and New York.

Jensin Cry Board of Atherina N.—On Tuesday, the Jensin Cry Board of Atherina N.—On Tuesday, the Jensin Cry Board of Atherina of the eighth or tenth time since they were sworm into office. Mayor Gilchrist in the chair. Shortly after meeting they all got mad, and ell resigned—so that at the present time our Jersey (tiy friends have no fathers. It appears they could not agree on who should be pretident staying in sometimes until three or face of election to take place on the 3d of June noxt, when it is no need round that the democrats will have it pretty much their own way afterwards in Jersey City.

Senious Account.—About twelve o'clock yesterday, a hackman named John McKonny, was seriously, if not fastily, injured at the Eric Railroad depot, in New Jersey, it appears that McKinney attempted to jump on the outer cars of the express train, while it was coming into the Jersey City depot, but missing his foothield on the platform was drawn between the car fence and dreadfully crushed in the breast. He was brought to this city on the forth of the platform was drawn between the City Hospital.

Another structures for Brookers, —Yesterday, the members of Phornix Engine Co. No. 12 received their new ongine from Boston. She is built, like the Boston engines, tub style, and is tastefully paluted and ornamented. There were about one hundred men on her rope, and they were accompanied by the Empire Brass Band. This is the foother Brass Band. Purely, accompanied by Shelton's Brass Band, paraded yesterday for down, and all at a glauce. Is is a meritorious work of art.

May Festival.—As we mentioned yesterday, there was no May festival, in consequence of the extensive preparations for the coming grand vocal festival, to be held on the 19th June next. It having been published that the May festival was to be celebrated on the 29th inst., a large number of rock boys, short boys, rowdies and loafers went to Hoboken yesterday, for the purpose of creating a disturbance, but were miserably disappointed in their expectations, as there was nobody there to kick up a row with.

Fuz.—A fire broke out, about midnight, in the basement of No. 17 Ann street, kept by Mr. Lucas, dealer in French wines. The flames were extinguished after doing but trifling damage.

Marine Affairs.

The New Corres Sur Deriance.—The admirers of should shipbuilding will find a beautiful specimen of the clipper oraf: in the above vessel, now lying at pier No. 9 Rest river. She is worthy of the attention of California shippers, and those desirous of sungrating to the Goiden State. In her construction she is, in many respects, unlike any of the beautiful fleet of her character hat have spread over all the earth the well-carned fame of 1,900 tons. Her length, over all, is 210 feet; breadth beam, 431/2 feet; and she is 20 feet deep. She has three full deeks. Her bow is as sharp as any other clipper, but her floor is comparatively flat, having only ten inches dead rise, which is the main peculiarity in her construc-tion, and the advantage or disadvantage of which has been a vexed question in the minds of our naval con-structors for a long time. Many of those best fitted to judge of such matters are very sanguine of its success. structors for a long time. Many of those best fitted to judge of such matters are very sanguine of its success. Her cabins are unusually wide, and, from her great breadth of beam, she has fine accommodations for passengers. She was built at Rockland, by Mr. Thomas, under the direction of Captain Isaac Taylor, of Boston. Her model was designed by Mr. Samuel M. Pook, U.S. Naval Constructor. The Deflance, on her passage from Rockland to Fire Isaad Light, ran at the rate of about eighteen knots per hour, and from Fire Island to Sandy Hook twenty knots were made. She was sold by Messrs, Secomb & Taylor, of Boston, to Messrs, Jones & Johnson, of this city, for $96,000, on her arrival here. Mr. A. G. Benson is her agent, and she will sail in about ten days for San Francisco, being aiready nearly filled up. This vessel has been fitted with every requisite for a passenger ship; and those who may take passage in her will probably make a shorter voyage to San Francisco than has every yet been accomplished, as her construction embodies all the elements of a safe-going, fast-sailing clipper.

The Bron-Lucy-Warra—This vessel, which was detained at Sagna is Grande, owing to the authorities there having imprisented three of her crew, on the pretence of their being desertors from a Spanish man of war, arrived here yesterday. She was not allowed, however, to proceed on her voyage till Captain Watts paid some $46 or $50 for expenses incurred in boarding his imprisoned scamen, and he was forced to supply their places by three reamen from another vessel in the port. He estimate his damage for detention, &c., at $250, which he has formally demanded, through our consular agent, of the Spanish government.

Bower Theatre.—This old established and well managed theatre continues uninterrupted in its career of success. Notwithstanding this is the sixth week of representation of the dramatic romance of the "Corsican Brothers." it is received by crowded audiences, with as much delight and astonishment as ever. It is to be repeated to night. The cast embodies all those great favorites—Messrs. Eddy, Stevens, Goodali, Griffiths, Leffingwell, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Ycoman. and Mrs. Mason. The concluding feature will be the drama of the "Brigand," in which Eddy will sustain the leading character.

Broadwar Theatra.—This theatre is nightly crowded by highly respectable audiences, who are attracted by their curiosity to see Lola Montes in the character she is supposed to have sustained while in Bavaria. Barry represents the old King in fine style. Conway as Prime Minister is very good, and the other parts, by Whiting, Reynolds, Fenno. Davidge, Mrs. Vernon. Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Abbott, Kate Horn, Mrs. Sefton, and Mrs. Conway, are all represented with admirable ability. The first part represents Lola Montes as a donseuse, the second as a politician, the third as a countess, and the next as a fugitive. The entertainments conclude with "Mr. and Mrs. Lilly W." with Davidge and Mrs. Vernon in the leading characters.
